This might be one of the coolest things I've ever experienced -- a helicopter ride over the Grand Canyon. These were two firsts for me: I've never been in a helicopter and I've never seen the Grand Canyon. I'd actually never been to Nevada either, so this was a pretty overwhelming week, to say the least.

I was lucky enough to have been seated up front with the pilot and got an amazing view of, well, everything. We were in the air for about an hour as it took some time to get to the Canyon. I must have snapped hundreds of pictures, but not one did it justice.
